RICHARD JONES FOUNDATION IS THE WORKING NAME OF THE RICHARD JONES CHARITY REGISTERED No. 310057

The Jones Charitable Trust started in 1692. The Jones family lived in Stowey and Richard Jones is buried in Chew Magna. His family held high positions locally and nationally. Originally called Jones's Educational Foundation the income of the charity is primarily to promote the education of persons under the age of 30 who are resident in the area of benefit.

The trustees meet twice a year and will consider applications from individuals, schools and clubs/groups involved in the education of younger people. Applications must be received before the advertised deadline. The committee of trustees encourages applications and tries to assist those in education in whatever way possible to meet their aims.

LATE APPLICATIONS WILL BE DEALT WITH AT THE APRIL 2024 MEETING.
